

EASTER MADLIBS

3

The Mystery Map

This morning, I discovered a trail of sparkly _____ leading through the garden.
(plural noun)

At the end, I saw a _____ wearing a _____ hat
(adjective) (animal) (adjective)

and balancing an basket of _____ on its head!
(plural noun)

He said, "I'm not the Easter Bunny—I'm the Easter (_____)!"
(silly made up name)

He handed me a treasure map drawn on a giant _____ with a jellybean compass.
(noun)

We tiptoed through a field of _____ flowers and past a singing group of (adjective)

each holding a _____ shaped like a carrot.
(adjective) (noun)

We finally arrived at a sparkling _____ hill,
(adjective)

where we had to dig using a _____ made out of licorice.
(adjective) (noun)

There, we uncovered a _____ egg filled
(adjective) (colour)

with _____ and a tiny note that read:
(plural noun)

"Dear _____, You are _____ & truly _____! Happy Easter!"
(name) (adjective) (adjective)

Then we slid all the way down the hill on a _____ marshmallow sled (colour) (adjective)

and landed in a pile of _____!
(adjective) (plural noun)

Best Easter. Ever

