

SPRING MAD LIBS

3

This morning felt extra _____, and I was ready for a spring walk.
( adjective )

But when I looked for my boots, one was gone!

I searched behind the _____, under the _____,
( noun ) ( noun )

and next to the _____. Still no boot.
( adjective ) ( plural noun )

I opened the door and saw a trail of _____ leading across the yard
( plural noun )

So I grabbed my _____ coat and went to _____ after it.
( adjective ) ( verb )

The sun was _____, the wind was _____,
( adjective ) ( adjective )

and the ground was full of _____.
( plural noun )

I walked past a _____ fence and a _____ tree.
( adjective ) ( adjective )

My boot was sitting right on top of a _____ — covered in _____!
( noun ) ( plural noun )

I picked it up, gave it a shake, and decided to _____ all the way home.
( verb )

Now I always check my boots before I wear them.

You never know what kind of _____ you'll find during _____ spring days!
( plural noun ) ( adjective )
