

SPRING MAD LIBS

4

One sunny spring morning, I decided to plant a _____ garden.
(adjective)

I grabbed my _____ and some _____ seed packets.
(noun) (adjective)

First, I dug a hole for my _____ .
(adjective) (plural noun)

While I was waiting, I saw a _____ holding a _____ go by.
(noun) (noun)

Then, in the dirt, I found a _____ that looked like a _____ .
(adjective) (noun)

I planted it near a _____ and watered it with my _____ .
(noun) (noun)

Within minutes, a _____ sprouted from the ground.
(adjective) (noun)

The flowers began to _____ and smell like _____ .
(verb) (noun)

Suddenly, a _____ started _____ through the garden!
(noun) (verb)

I noticed a _____ _____ hiding behind the _____ .
(adjective) (noun) (noun)

Then a tiny _____ landed right on the _____ .
(noun) (noun)

I was so _____ I decided to name it _____ .
(feeling) (name)

The garden is so _____ that I decided to name it _____ !
(adjective) (name)